Lord Denning's "The Due Process of Law" is not just another dull law book explaining the rules of practice of courts. The book starts with narration of an interesting incident which happened in 1631 in Salisbury, UK.

The Due Process of Law by Alfred Thompson Denning

Two central themes run through this book. The first is the workings of the various 'measures authorised by the law so as to keep the streams of justice pure' — that is to say, contempt of court, judicial inquiries, and powers of arrest and search. The second is the recent development of family law, focusing particularly on Lord Denning's ...
